Mission Estate is a multi-award-winning winery and an iconic New Zealand landmark located in the heart of Hawke's Bay. Established in 1851 by French missionaries, it is New Zealand's oldest winery and home to a heritage like no other.

Paul Mooney, our passionate winemaker since 1979, crafts a wide range of classic red and white varietals characterised by purity of flavour, finesse and delicacy. Trained by the Marist Brothers themselves, Paul imparts the very essence of Mission's French heritage winemaking philosophy into both our Hawke's Bay and Marlborough wines.

We consider ourselves guardians of our heritage and our land, and for more than 20 years we have been proud to be a founding member of Sustainable Winegrowing New Zealand. In 1998, we were also one of the first wineries in New Zealand to be certified with the internationally recognised environmental management system ISO 14001. Both certifications represent Mission's ongoing commitment and dedication to minimising our impact on the environment.
